

- Save the Date -

ENPE Annual Conference
LIFE Natura Themis (LIFE14 GIE/GR/000026)
LIFE Reason for Hope (LIFE12 BIO/AT/000143)
IMPEL Water Crimes Project Team
23-24 October 2018
Natural History Museum of Crete (Exhibition Halls) Heraklion, Crete, Greece

“Protecting habitats and endangered species in Europe through tackling environmental crime”

Aims

The European Network of Prosecutors for the Environment (ENPE) promotes the enforcement of environmental criminal law by supporting the operational work of environmental prosecutors.

Together with its partners from two EU LIFE programme funded projects, and a specialist Water Crimes Group from the European Union Network for the Implementation and Enforcement of Environmental Law (IMPEL), we will be holding our annual conference at the Natural History Museum of Crete, <http://www.nhmc.uoc.gr/en>, Heraklion, Crete, Greece.

©Rutaveler

The focus of the conference will be the protection of habitats and endangered species.

Organisers & programme

©Argentika

For this unique event, ENPE <http://www.environmentalprosecutors.eu/> is joining forces with two EU LIFE programme-funded projects with similar objectives in tackling wildlife crimes: LIFE+ Reason for Hope <http://waldrapp.eu/index.php/en/en-home>; and LIFE Natura Themis <http://www.lifethemis.eu/>, as well as our colleagues from the IMPEL Water Crimes Group. A full programme of plenary, breakout and workshop sessions is planned at the University of Crete – Natural History Museum of Crete (UoC – NHMC) over two days – the 23rd and 24th of October 2018.

Please contact shaun.robinson@environment-agency.gov.uk; for more information. More updates, including registration and logistic details will follow in due course.

